2023 IATA Top Performer CBTA Center

IATA would like to extend its congratulations to your organization on your qualification as a Top Performer in 2023 as an IATA CBTA Center. This recognition is a testament to your organization's commitment to improve aviation safety and workforce skills through the delivery of a high quality and effective dangerous goods training program, in accordance with a competency-based training and assessment approach.

We were impressed by your exceptional performance in 2023, which was reflected in the number of workforce trained and their high success rate. Your organization has demonstrated a high level of professionalism, dedication to workforce success and commitment to delivering quality dangerous goods training programs.

As a 2023 Top Performer, your organization will enjoy increased exposure through a dedicated IATA web page, recognition on IATA's social media platforms, use of the Top Performer seal, a special certificate to mark your achievement, plus you will be allocated an additional attendee for the CBTA Center Conference being held in conjunction with the IATA World Cargo Symposium (WCS).

We hope you will join us during the CBTA Center Conference on Monday, 11th March, to receive your certificate. Once again, we congratulate you on this impressive achievement and wish you continued success in 2024!

Yours sincerely,

Yaniv SORANY
Principal, IATA Certification
